Nina Jasmin Petrow, was appointed as the Honorary Consul in San Antonio, Texas for the German Consulate General in Houston on Monday, September 29, 2015. She is succeeding Honorary Consul Ben Buecker, who has served in his position for the last 14 years. Ms. Petrow brings with her experience in both American and European law, and is familiar with the position from her predecessor, Mr. Buecker, as she served in his office from 2004 to 2005.

Bernhard "Ben" Buecker will be entering retirement, but his contributions to the German-American community do and will not end there. He has been and continues to be an active member in the San Antonio Liederkrantz, Beethoven Choir and other cultural clubs. He has served as Honorary Consul since March 2001 and has provided a tremendous amount of support in German-American matters in Texas. He will be fondly remembered here and we wish him the best of luck in his new endeavors and thank him for his time and services to the German-American community.

San Antonio Mayor Ivy Taylor was also in attendance (pictured right with Consul General Redeker).

Honorary Consul Petrow has officially began her new duties as Honorary Consul in San Antonio and her contact information is as follows:

Petrow Law Group, PLLC
